SUBJECT: Vehicle Crash at O'Reilly Auto Parts

At 11:34 a.m., the Neosho Police Department responded to a private property vehicle crash at O'Reilly Auto Parts, located at 1088 S. Neosho Boulevard.

The investigation determined that a 92-year-old male drove his 2000 Ford Explorer through the front doors of the store, accelerating through the building and striking a 73-year-old female customer inside.

Neosho Fire Department and Newton County Ambulance arrived on the scene to assess both the driver and the injured customer. The customer was transported to Freeman Hospital West with non-life-threatening injuries.
